

THE NEW YORK SEMINARY

COMPLAINT POLICY

Internal Complaint Policy:

Complaints should be submitted in writing to the Dean or Director. Each complaint is thoroughly investigated, and the student is informed in writing within 30 days of the resolution of the complaint. No person directly involved in the complaint will formulate the final determination.

NY State Complaint Policy:

A student also has the right to file a complaint with the State of New York Education Department using the policy below.

For all types of complaints concerning colleges and universities in New York State, the first course of action must be to try to resolve the complaint directly with the administration of the college or university involved. The Office of College and University Evaluation will not review a complaint until all grievance procedures at the institution have been followed and all avenues of appeal exhausted and documentation provided that such procedures have been exhausted. Please note: Every New York State college and university is required to establish, publish, and enforce explicit policies related to redress of grievances.

Please do not send a complaint to the Office of College and University Evaluation until you have read all of the information below. This will assure that you are sending your complaint to the appropriate agency/office.

- The Office of College and University Evaluation handles only those complaints that concern educational programs or practices of degree-granting institutions subject to the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, with the exceptions noted below.
- The Office does not handle anonymous complaints.
- The Office does not intervene in matters concerning an individual's grades or examination results, as these are the prerogative of the college's faculty.

- The Office does not handle complaints concerning actions that occurred more than five years ago.
- The Office does not intervene in matters that are or have been in litigation.

AJS Complaint Procedure:

Complaints can be filed with the office of the AJS using the contact information below:

Association of Institutions of Jewish Studies
500 W. Kennedy Boulevard
Lakewood, NJ 08701-2620
Phone: 732-363-7330
Fax: 732-415-8198
Email: nlandesman@theaijs.com

Complaints that are received by AJS concerning an AJS accredited or pre-accredited institution will be handled according to the following procedures:

1. Within 10 days of receipt by AJS, the complaint is screened to see if it has any face validity and if it is relevant to AJS' role in accrediting and overseeing the institution. This generally means that the complaint has to address an institutional issue that bears on compliance with AJS's Standards for Accreditation.
2. If AJS determines that the complaint does not fit into AJS's responsibilities, the complaint will be acknowledged and replied to as being not within the purview of AJS. As a courtesy, a copy of the complaint will be forwarded to the institution, and the case will be closed.
3. If AJS determines that the complaint is relevant to its accreditation Standards or policies, or if it falls within AJS' oversight responsibilities, AJS will contact the institution and forward the complaint to the institution. AJS will then allow 30 days for the Institution to respond to AJS that it has reviewed the matter and either resolved the complaint to the complainant's satisfaction or otherwise dealt with the issue in accordance with the Institution's published Complaint Policy. An explanation of its actions is required, as well as a statement that the Institution certifies that it followed its own published Complaint Policy.
4. AJS will then review the institution's response and Complaint Policy.

5. If the Institution informs AIJS in its response that the complainant did not follow the Complaint Policy of the school, AIJS will instruct the complainant to follow the Complaint Policy of the institution.
6. If the complainant claims to have followed the Institution's published Complaint Policy, and the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant, AIJS will make a determination as to whether the complainant did actually follow the Institution's Complaint Policy. If it is determined by AIJS that the Institution did in fact follow its published Complaint Policy, and followed through with a proper disposition, the complainant will be so informed and that case will be closed.
7. If AIJS determines that the Institution did not in fact follow its own published Complaint Policy, or if the matter involves issues to substantially question the Institution's compliance with AIJS Standards or policies, AIJS will launch an inquiry into the issue within 10 days. AIJS will ask for documentation from the complainant, substantiating the complaint; and an explanation of the disposition from the Institution (which should document how the Institution followed its own Complaint Policy and procedures).
8. Within 10 days of the receipt of these above materials, the executive director of AIJS, together with the chairman of the Executive Accrediting Council, will review the complaint file to determine if the institution complied with AIJS standards and policies. AIJS will contact the institution and allow the institution the opportunity (30 days) to review the matter and provide an explanation and/or additional information to AIJS.
9. If after receipt of the Institutional response and a review of any additional documentation, AIJS makes a final determination that the institution is not in compliance with AIJS standards and/or policies, a formal corrective action plan will be required from the institution within 30 days.
10. If the response is accepted by AIJS, both the complainant and the institution will be so advised and the case will be closed.
11. If the corrective action plan is not accepted by AIJS, the matter will be placed on the agenda of the EAC to determine if an adverse action, or other sanction should be initiated against the institution for noncompliance with AIJS' Standards of Accreditation.
12. AIJS will make a good faith effort to address anonymous complaints against an accredited institution or against AIJS itself and treat it in a similar manner to a regular complaint. Obviously, there is no mechanism to respond directly to an anonymous complainant.

13. All complaints received by AIJS regarding an accredited institution will be filed and stored in an easy and accessible manner. Site visitors will be given access to the file of an institution that is being reviewed, and any complaints on file in AIJS will be considered in the final decision of the EAC.
