

THE NEW YORK SEMINARY

DISABILITY SERVICES

Qualified women of the Orthodox Jewish faith are eligible for admission to The New York Seminary without regard to age, race, color, national origin, or physical handicap. The school is also an equal opportunity employer and is in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disability Act of 1992.

Beyond equal access, opportunity, and accommodation, the school is committed to the understanding, sensitivity, patience, encouragement, and support that are essential in guaranteeing to all qualified students the same educational experience and environment as well as the equal opportunity to learn and study at the institution.

All of the New York Seminary student facilities are fully handicap accessible and every effort will be made to accommodate any handicapped student who is admitted to the institution.

The New York Seminary does not have a program for students with intellectual disabilities. The New York Seminary provides reasonable academic accommodations for students with intellectual disabilities.
