THE NEW YORK SEMINARY

TRANSFER CREDIT POLICY

The New York Seminary welcomes transferring students from other programs, and does its utmost to assist in a smooth and friendly transfer process. The New York Seminary accepts up to 36 transfer credits for courses of comparable level and content, earned at similar institutions, provided the student received a minimum grade of a C. The courses are further evaluated to determine relevancy to student's degree requirements. Transfer credits are evaluated on an individual basis, and the program reserves the right to reject such credits.

The New York Seminary accepts credits for exams on subjects of comparable level and content limited to 16 credits and subject to the degree requirements of the program.

Decisions regarding transfer credits are subject to the same appeals process described below.

Note: The New York Seminary does not have any articulation agreements with regard to whether the Seminary will accept credits from other institutions nor with regard to whether other institutions accept the Seminary's credits. Before enrolling in the institution, students should be sure that their attendance will help them reach their educational goals.

Please be advised that the transferability of credits and acceptance of the degrees earned at The New York Seminary are at the complete discretion of an institution to which a student may seek to transfer. If the credits or the degrees earned at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which a student seeks to transfer, she may be required to repeat some or all of the coursework at that institution.
