

THE NEW YORK SEMINARY

VACCINATIONS POLICY

New York law requires that all students attending colleges in New York show written proof of immunization for Measles, Mumps, and Rubella and Meningococcal Meningitis Vaccination Response. This law requires all students born after 1956 who are matriculated in a degree program to provide the institution with a record of immunization; or evidence of immunity by history of disease or serological evidence.